

Children and family’s news and chat week 33!

Hi everyone, well, it seems this strange year is continuing to throw new things into our paths that we need to get around, over or through! As I write this, we are about to go into our 2nd lockdown in England, although this time the schools, colleges and universities will remain open. It reminds me a bit of the bear hunt where the family couldn’t go over, under or around, but had to go through every obstacle put in their way. It’s similar, because we cannot avoid everything we have been through so far and we’ve all travelled through it together, some of us getting more wet, muddy (figuratively) and even afraid, than others. However you feel right now, I guess the thing to remember is that we have been through this before and therefore we can get through it again, as Christians we are never travelling this path alone, God is always with us, and if you ever feel afraid, speak to God and try to leave your worries with God. Of course, you may be feeling perfectly fine about it all, and actually enjoying the challenges of doing things differently, which is great! We will have our usual zoom Sundayclub at 11.15am on Sunday I’m looking forward to seeing you all then! Below are pictures of some of your Messy Church work!

“For I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God’s love.”

Romans 8 verse 38.

The book of Romans was written by Paul to the believers living in Rome in about A.D. 57. But it has a lot to say to us today too. In this verse Paul goes on to say that neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow can separate us from the love of God. How wonderful to know that God loves us no matter what.
