

Children and family's news and chat week 36!

Hello peeps! How is everyone? Don't forget that advent starts soon, so get your candles ready to put in your window if you haven't already! I live over in Eastwood, but I'm still going to have a go at putting a different candle in the window for each day leading up to Christmas! (See last weeks news for a template to use, and the bottom of the page for a different one!).

Don't forget if you would like to help out with our Christmas plans, I am looking for young people to read some of the bible passages connected to the nativity, in a video which you can make yourself at home and then send me. Or you could record yourself singing a verse of your favourite carol and send it to me! You can also dress up as one of the nativity characters if you would like and send me the pictures! We will have our usual zoom Sundayclub at 11.15am on Sunday I'm looking forward to seeing you all then. Pictures below of last weeks zoom where we made Shaun the sheep pictures!

“Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.” Romans 12 verses 4 and 5.

Here Paul is writing to the Christians in Rome. He is talking about our bodies having lots of different parts, and each have a special job within our bodies. As Christians, we are also part of one body of people who can all work together and who all belong together – you are never alone!

A poem by Beatrix Potter:

Ninny, nanny, netticoat,
In a white petticoat,
With a red nose,
The longer she stands, the shorter she grows – what is she?
